Eligibility Requirements:

To sit for the exam, you must meet the following CP requirements:

- You need 3 years of on-the-job experience (within the last 10 years) in construction projects or built environment projects to qualify for the PMI-CP. So, make sure you have the required work experience before you apply

Construction Professional (PMI-CP)TM

The Project Management Institute (PMI) offers a professional certification for construction and built environment professionals known as the Construction Professional in Built Environment Projects (PMI-CP)TM. PMI's professional certification examination development processes stand apart from other project management certification examination development practices. PMI aligns its process with certification industry best practices, such as those found in the Standards for Educational and Psychological Testing. A key component of this process is that organizations wishing to offer valid and reliable professional credentialing examinations are directed to use a Role Delineation Study (RDS) or Job Task Analysis (JTA) as the basis for the creation of the examination.

Project Management Institute (PMI) is the leading professional association for project management and the authority for a growing global community of millions of project professionals and individuals who use project management skills. Collectively, these professionals and "change-makers" consistently create better outcomes for businesses communities, and society worldwide.
